

Approaches to the Roman Environment

Speakers

Date & Time

4 March 2025
15:00 – 19:00

Location

American Academy in Rome
Via Angelo Masina, 5

Ria Berg, Institutum Romanum Finlandiae

Roman Trees and Constructions, Iconography and Topography

Roald Dijkstra, Radboud Institute for Culture and History

Does the Wind Blow Wherever It Pleases? Weather in the Late Antique Imagination

Claudia Minniti, Università di Roma, La Sapienza

Gli animali dalla parte dell'uomo. Studi di archeozoologia da Roma/
Animals on the Side of Man. Studies of Zooarchaeology from Rome

Jean-Philippe Goiran, Université Lyon

The Ancient Harbours of Portus and Utica: The Delta-Port Relationship

Roberto Ragno, Università di Bari

Tackling Uncertainty in Italian Agricultural Practices During the 1st Millennium CE

Peter Sarris, University of Cambridge

LALIA or La La Land: What Difference Does It Make?

Jessica Venner, School of Advanced Studies, London

Opportunistic Gardens and Environmental Adaptation in the Final Years of Pompeii

Concluding remarks: Angela Trentacoste, British School at Rome