IN ROME

Giorgio Griffa / Kamrooz Aram: Paintings

The American Academy in Rome presents Giorgio Griffa / Kamrooz Aram: Paintings, an exhibition that creates a dialogue between two painters whose work illustrates how abstract painting reverberates across time and space. The painters met in 2024 in Turin, and this exhibition extends a conversation they began about the place and purpose of cultural tradition, painting as a measure of time and rhythm, and how gesture is traced and captured.

The exhibition is in collaboration with the Fondazione Giorgio Griffa, the Clark Art Institute of Art, Lorcan O'Neill Gallery, and Alexander Gray Associates. This project is supported by the Directorate-General for Contemporary Creativity of the Italian Ministry of Culture under the Italian Council programme (2025).

Thomas Spencer Jerome Lectures

The Thomas Spencer Jerome Lecture Series is among the most prestigious international platforms for the presentation of new work on Roman history and culture. Edward Watts, Alkiviadis Vassiliadis Endowed Chair and Distinguished Professor of History at UC San Diego, will give the lectures this year on the topic of interchronological Roman history. Watts will introduce this concept to explain how Romans found and maintained a balance between innovation and tradition.

The Jerome Lectures are delivered at both the American Academy in Rome and the University of Michigan.
